

T. Randolph Harris
McLaughlin & Stern, LLP
New York, New York

T. Randolph Harris is a partner in the New York City law firm of McLaughlin & Stern, LLP, where he is co-Chair of its thirty-partner Trusts and Estates Department. Mr. Harris, a native of Wheeling, West Virginia, is a graduate of Princeton University and of the New York University School of Law, from which he also received an LL.M. in Taxation.

Mr. Harris is a Fellow of the American College of Tax Counsel and of the American College of Trust and Estate Counsel, where he is past Chair of the Legal Education and Fiduciary Income Tax Committees and a former member of the Executive Committee of the Board of Regents. He is an active member of the Taxation and Real Property, Trust & Estate Law Sections of the American Bar Association, and a member of the Surrogate's Court Advisory Committee of the New York State Office of Court Administration. He is co-Chair of the Princeton University Planned Giving Advisory Committee, and serves on the New York Public Library Planned Giving Advisory Board, the New-York Historical Society Planned Giving Advisory Council and the Rockefeller University Committee on Trust and Estate Gift Plans.

Mr. Harris is an Adjunct Professor of Law at the NYU School of Law, where he teaches Estate Planning in the Graduate Tax Law Program. He is active in charitable and community affairs, currently serving as Chair of the Board of Trustees of the Shakespeare Theatre of New Jersey and Chair of the Advisory Council on Culture and the Arts of the Salzburg Global Seminar.